Miss Mitchell, a graduate of the Wayland Academy in the Class of 1919 and Alumni Secretary of Wayland for more than 30 years, combines goodness humaneness and sensitivity in rare measure. She has given herself to this place of learning in distinguished measure. TOO MISS MITCHELL, THIS ISSUE OF PILLARS IS AFFECTIONATELY DEDICATED.

MARION E. MITCHELL

The Encyclopedia Britannica would be out paged if I were to exnumerate the wealth of the facts & fancies that my memory conjures up covering the scores of years that I was privileged to be an active part of Wayland.

My four student years, with their inevitable ups-and-downs, went by like a flash, leaving a residue of priceless memories.

With the beginning of the next school year, I was back at Wayland as the secretary to President Brown. Under his tutelage, with his great love for & belief in Wayland (which he had attended as a boy), I caught a wider knowledge of the school — its enviable past, the value of its happy hard working present, & a glimpse into the expanding & enriched future.

All of the valuable experiences I had through nearly half a century, the greatest was the accumulation of so many wonderful friends. They have gone to the far corners of the earth, but through the magic of our Wayland fellowship we still share a strong loyalty. We belong to the Wayland Family in the best sense of the word. We were "kindred in a filial love," as are song "Allegiance" states.

"We are the trustees of the future & as such we must think beyond the present, beyond ourselves & consider what effects our acts & decisions may have upon posterity."

You will never know the depth of my appreciation to you — The class of 1974 — for including me in your activities of today. It shows again the continuity of the concern & loyalty that is part of our Wayland heritage. I am grateful indeed for the honor you have given me.

HE'S my computer date?

So what're you doing tonight, big fellow.

Oh, get out of my life!

HI BEAUTIFUL!

72 HATE

I promise I won't do it again.

This is a bust — D.C.!

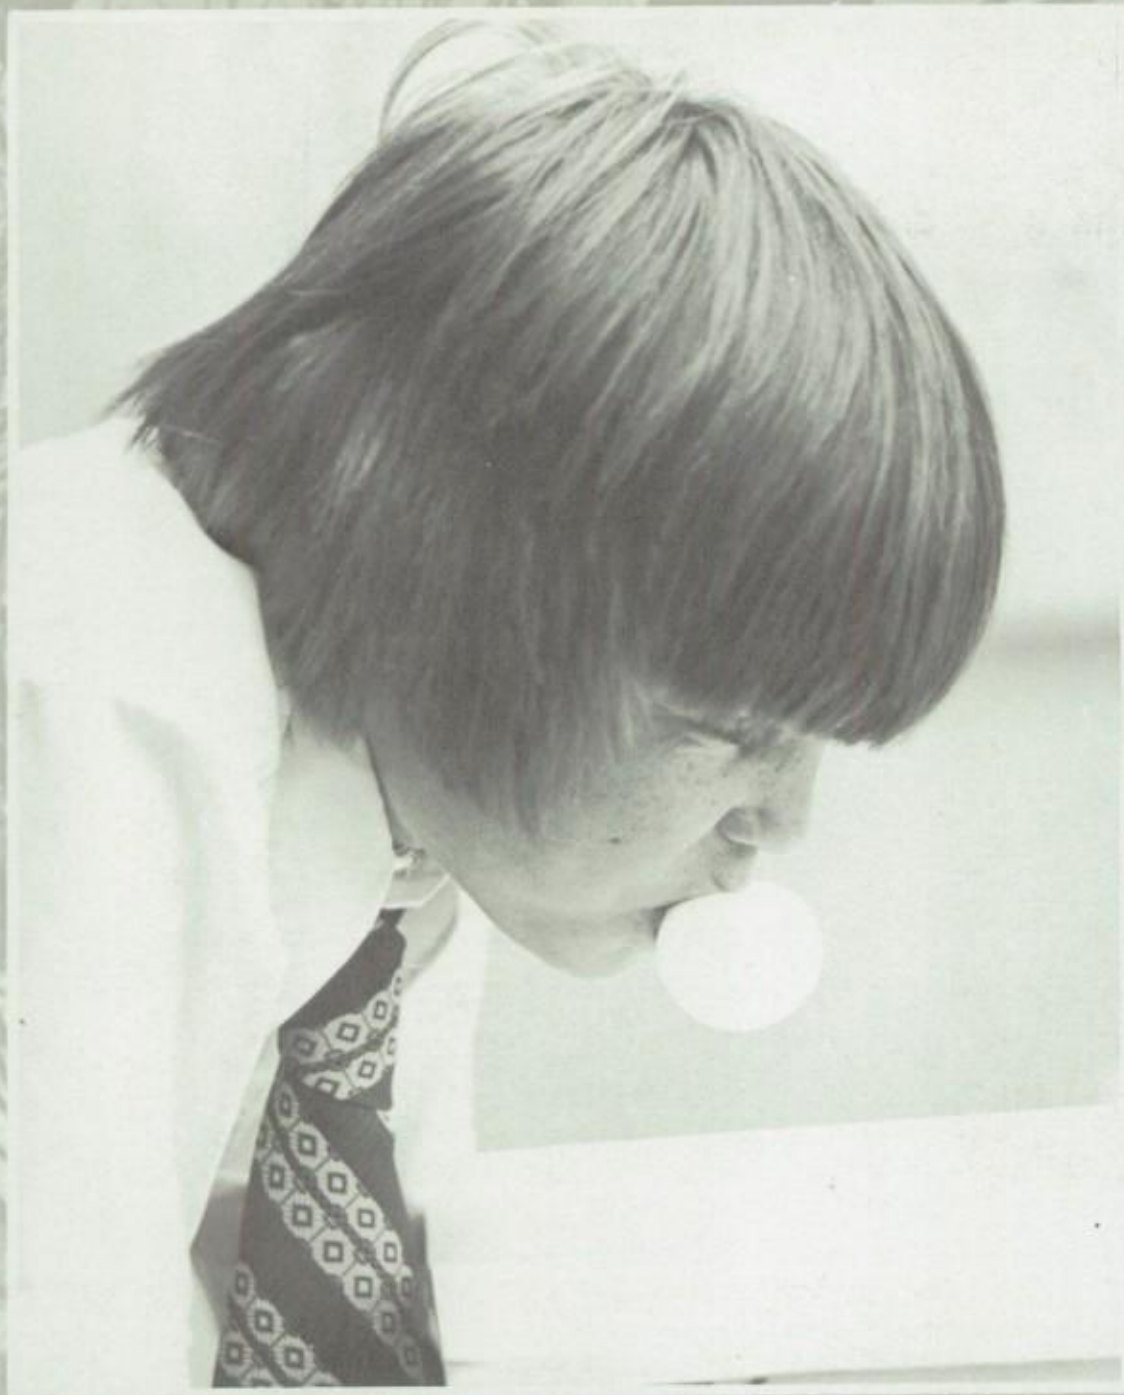

Eat My Shorts!

If you ask me one more time...

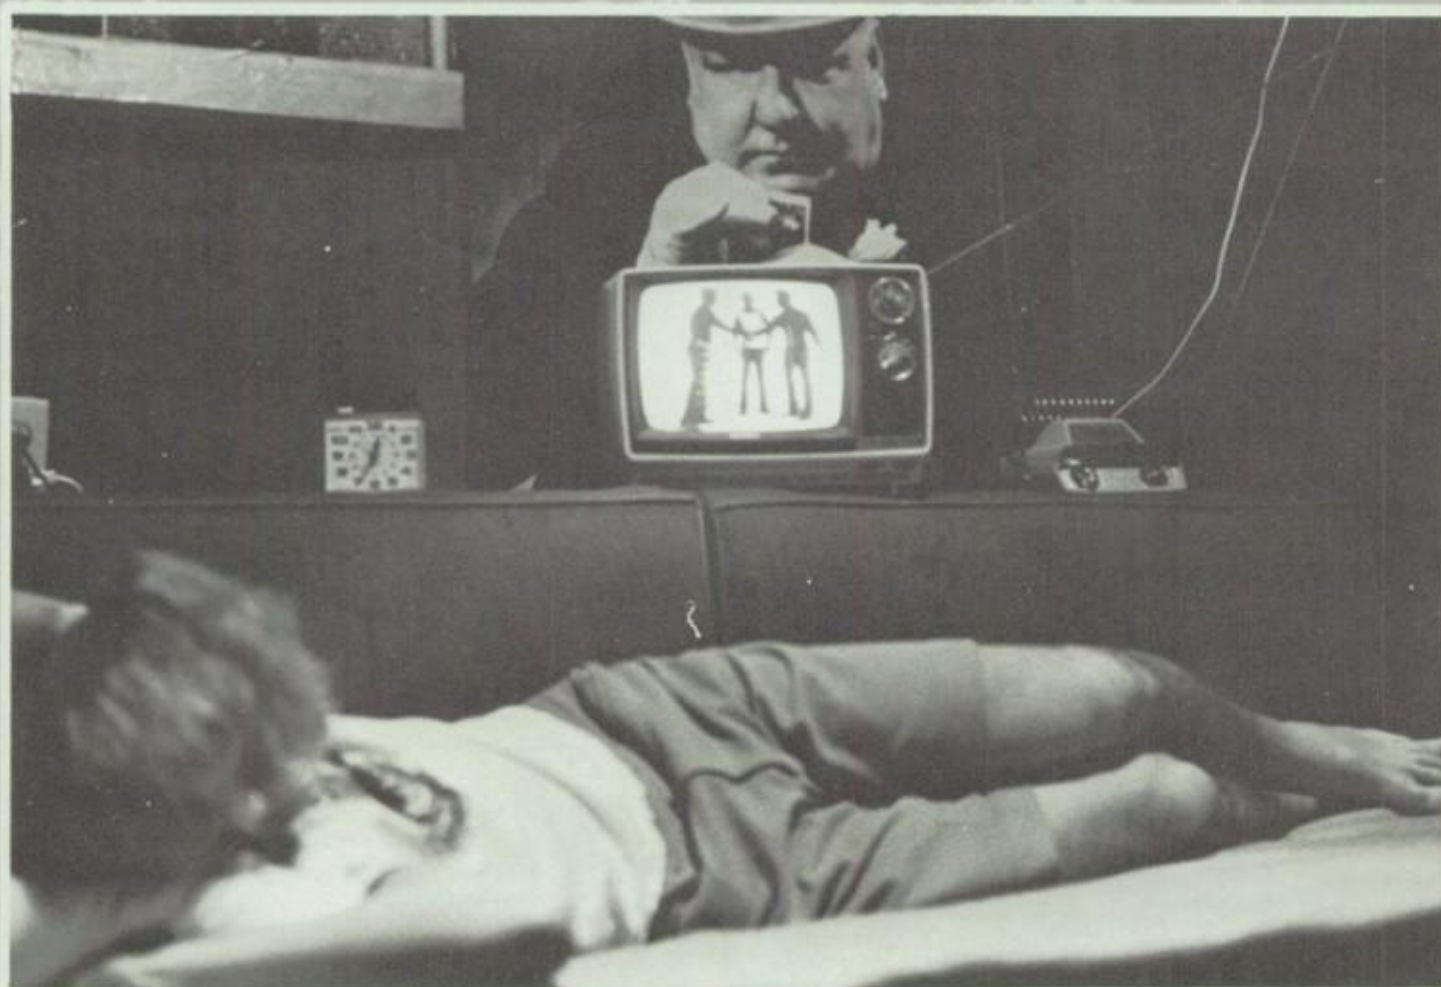

I want to see you blow a bigger one, Baby Kirsh.

There's a rule against smoking in the girls room!

What — me worry?

A typical Senior Jock.

Bea never comes out on top.

Quick, somebody straighten me out!

My teeth are stuck!

Another rough day at the office.

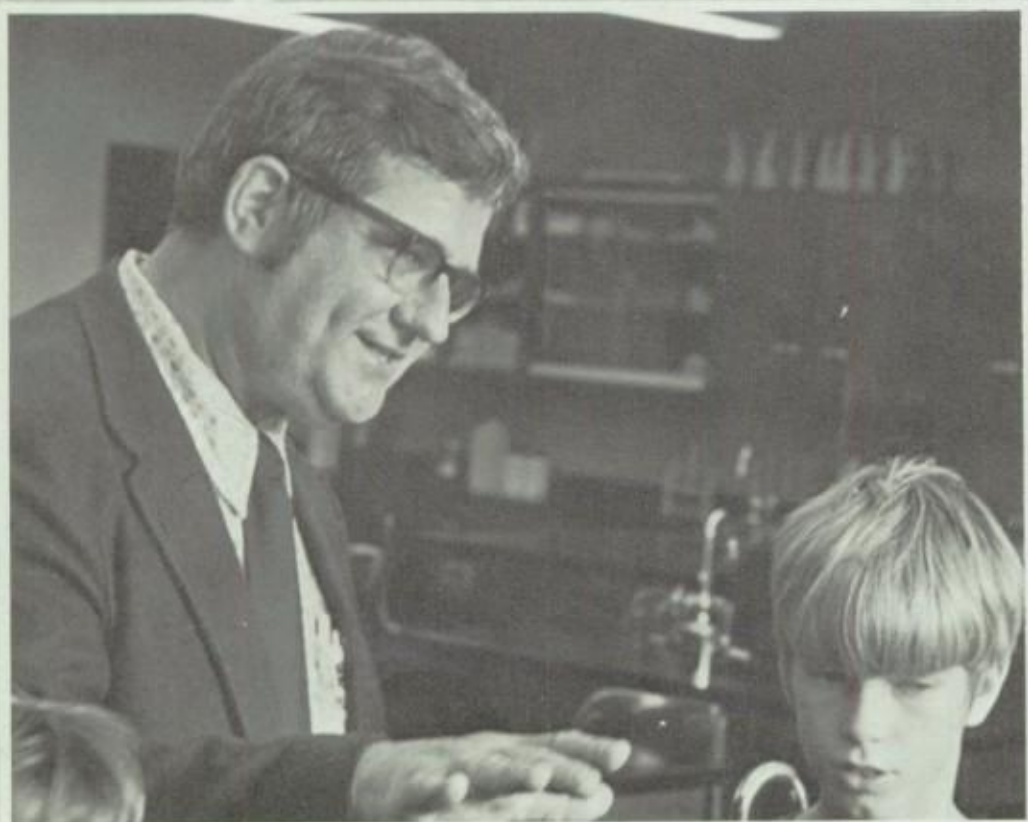

Maybe if I close my eyes they won't see me.

Next Varsity Club is going to make clay bunnies.

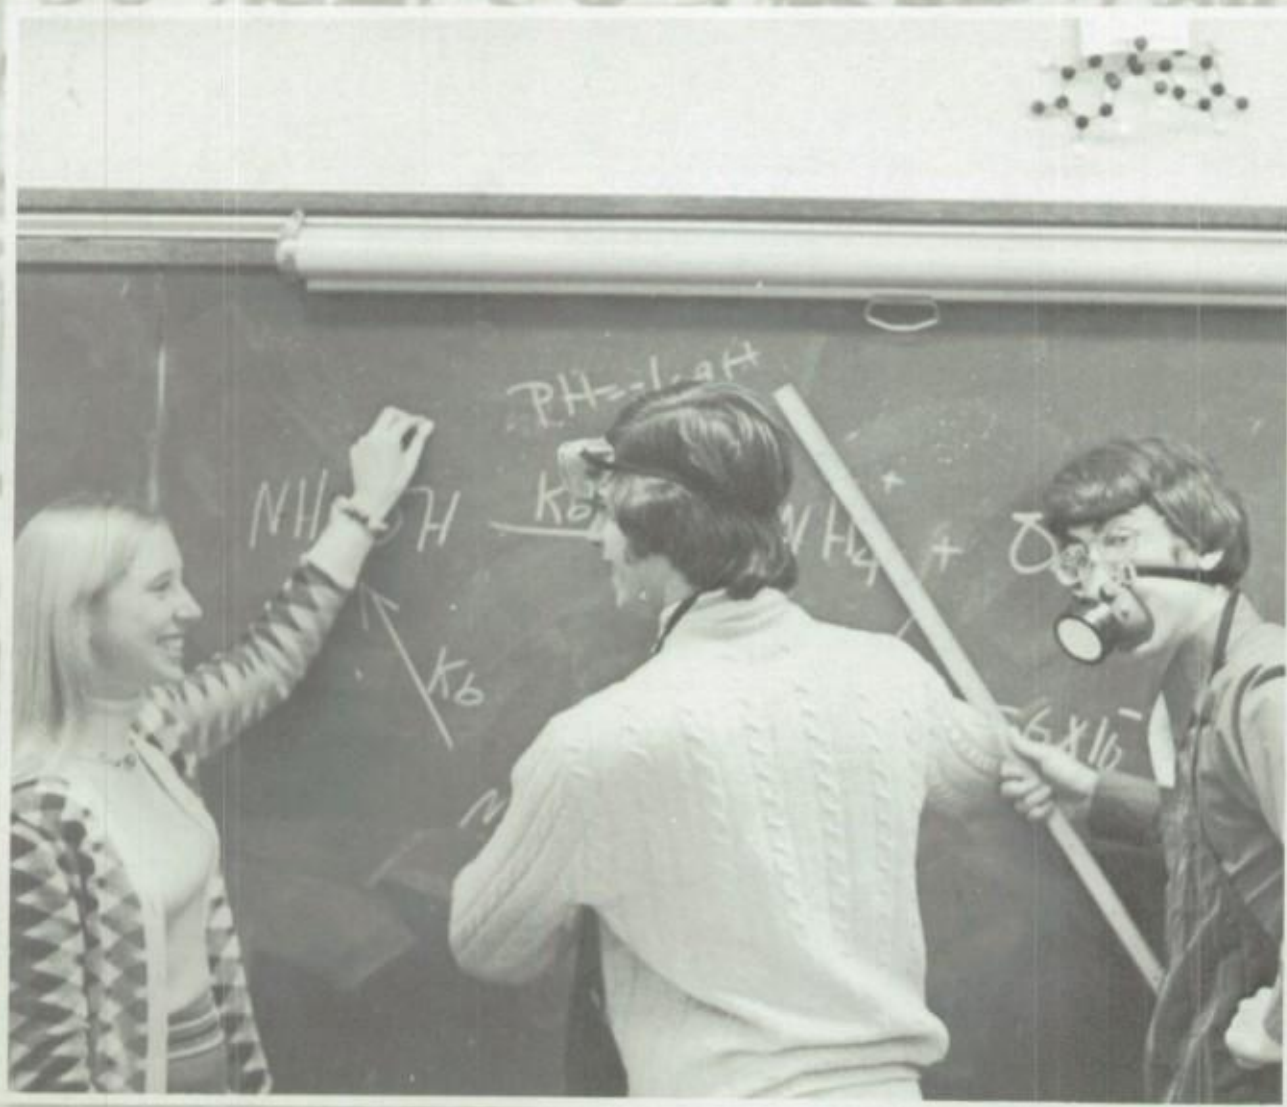

And you take the little porkers neck and you twist it.

Wee ... these rehearsals get preeety long ...

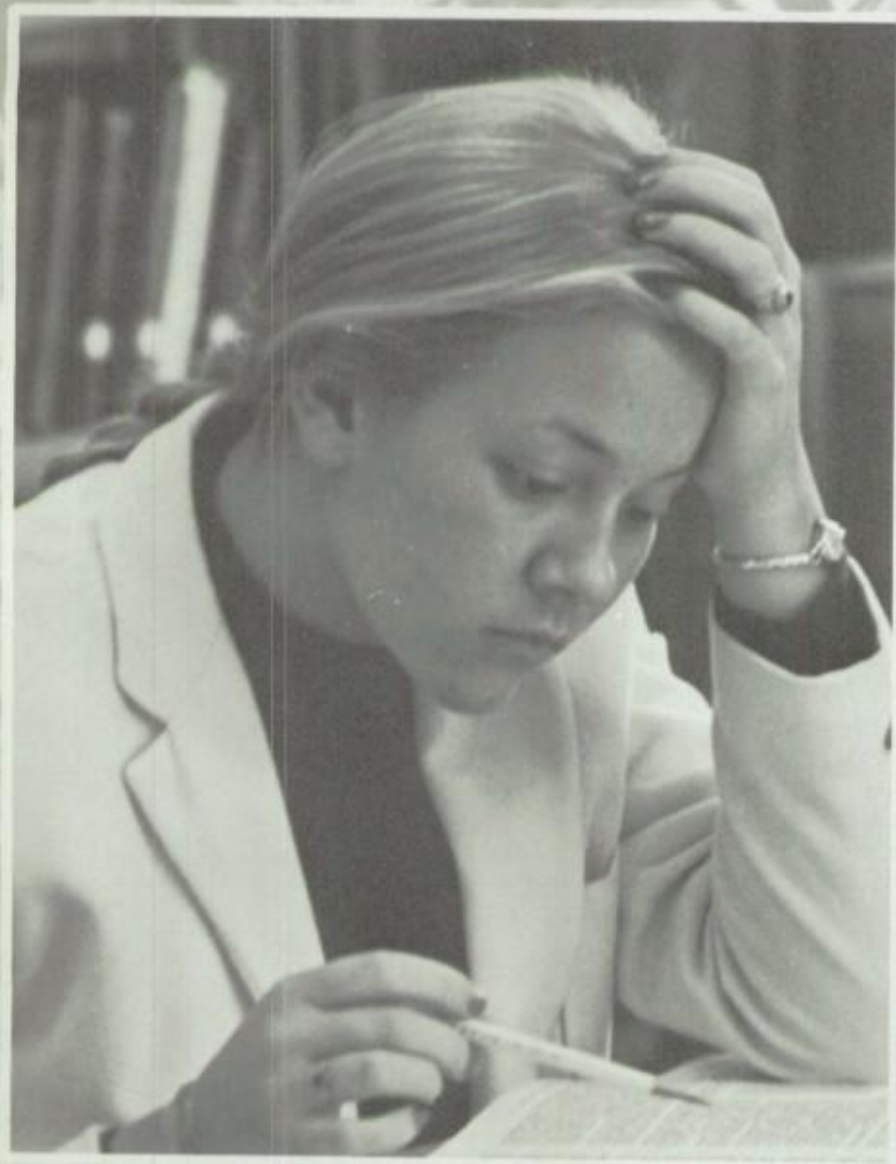

Doesn't look like Mitch is gonna listen to the dumb blond.

Just another Wayland Lady!

8 I learned if different in 3rd grade!

We're big Sophomores this year, with even a little neach-fuzz.

OPENING OF SCHOOL

I can honestly say I was a little frightened the first day, but everyone was in the same situation I was. People were really friendly and aside from the lumpy bed I could feel at home.

way isn't really is that bad!

Homecoming

The combination of Homecoming and Parent's Weekend was "the best ever" this year at Wayland. A buffet dinner, musical program, an almost continuous athletic schedule and a very spirited pep rally highlighted the weekend. The varsity football team came through with a victory that gave everyone something to cheer about. Saturday evening was topped off by a dance for the students and a gathering for faculty and parents. It was a very successful weekend for all; good people, good times, and good memories.

SEE HOW THEY RUN

Small but appreciative audiences enjoyed See How They Run, a three act farce and the first productions of the Wayland Players. Galloping in and out of the four doors of an English vicarage are an American actress and actor, a cockney maid who experiences alcohol for the first time, four men in clergymen's suits presenting the problems of mistaken identities and even an escaped prisoner.

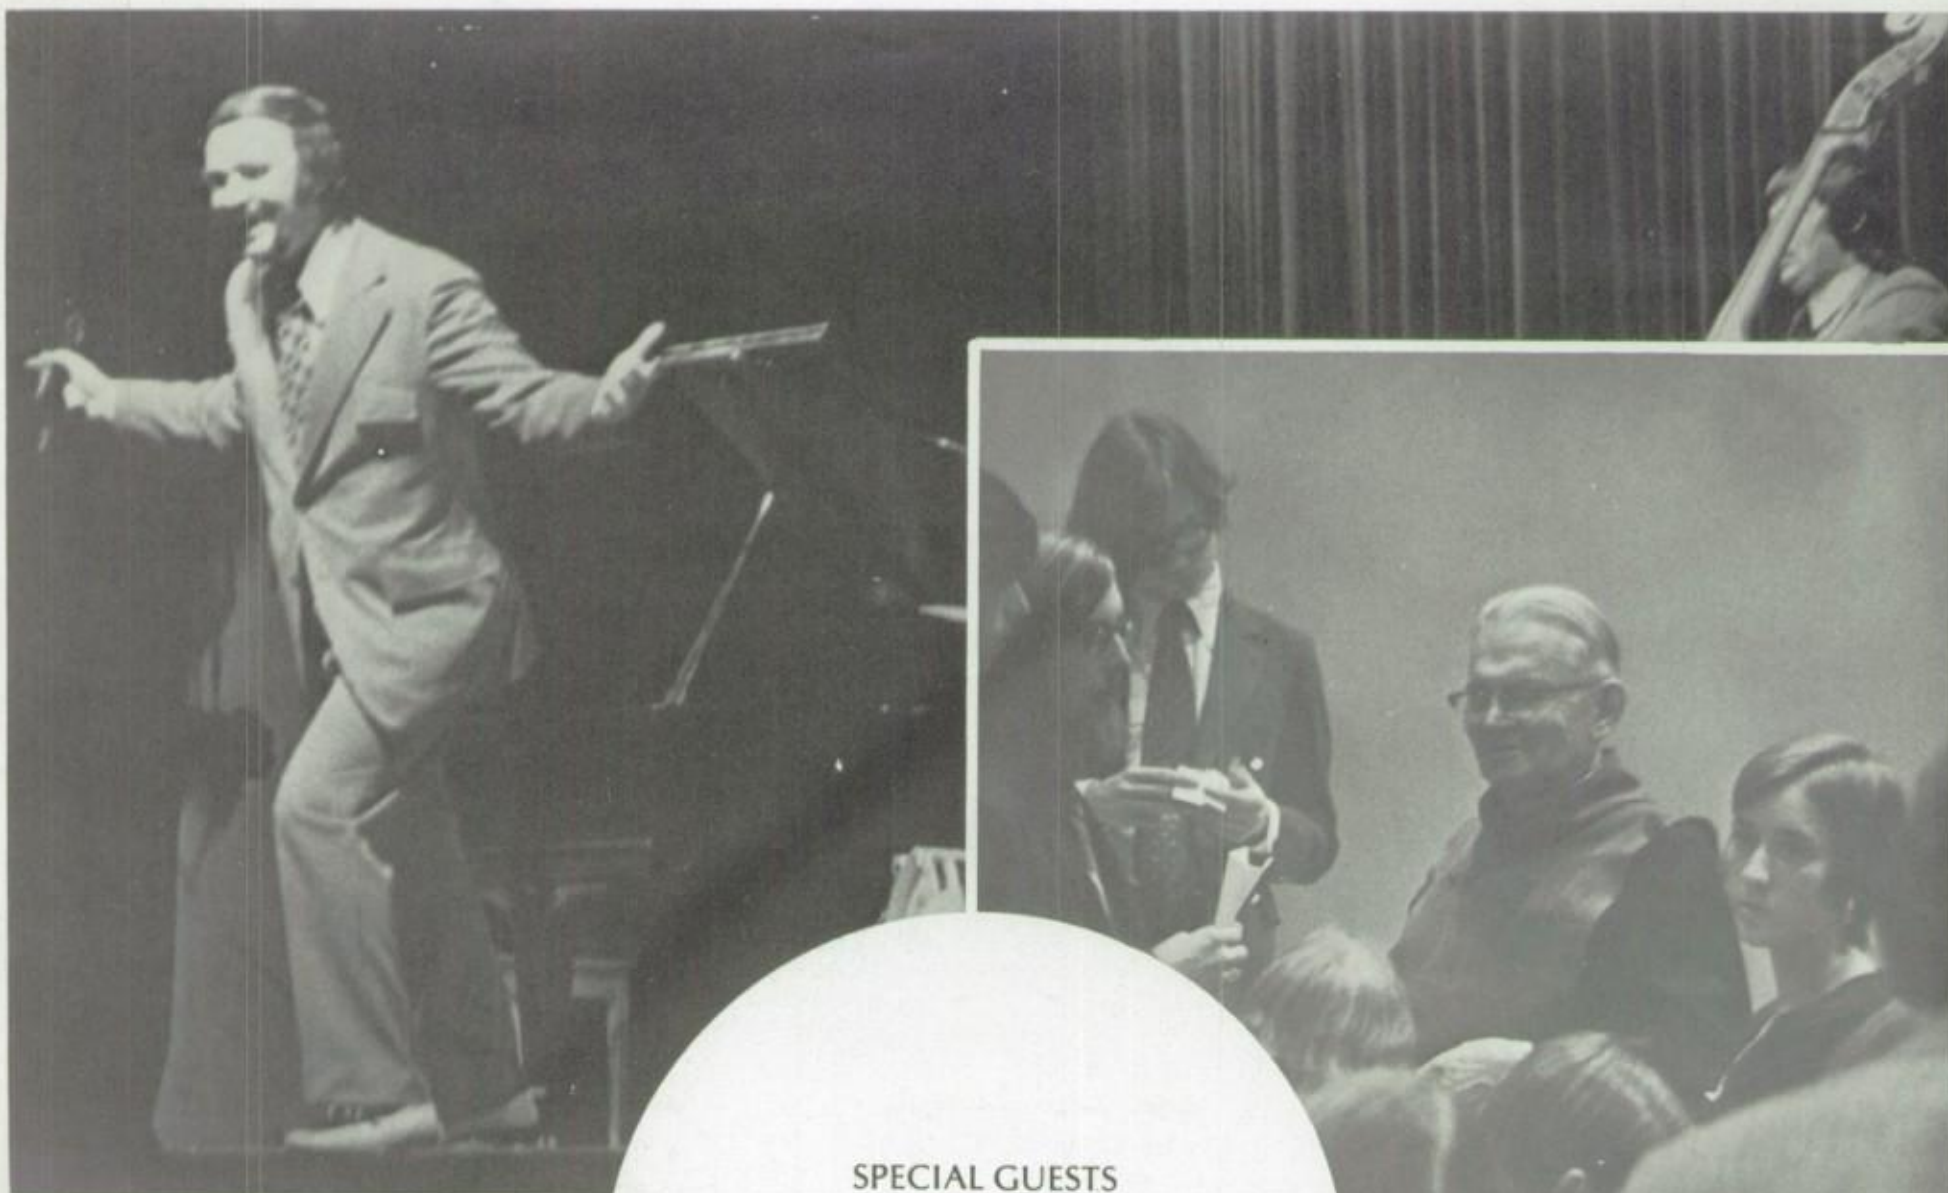

Bruce,

For the past for years you have contributed so much of your time and self to the theatre that we all here at Wayland are eternally grateful; for without your untiring help Waylands theatre would not be.

Wayland Community

SPECIAL GUESTS

A new world of interest, excitement and excitement, beauty, was open to the student by the special series of drama dance, music and poetry.

The Varsity Cheerleaders, led by small but mighty Julie Heacox, developed into one of the finest squads Wayland has seen. Aided by their advisors, Carol Pellowski and Marcia Burnham, these girls added pep and spirit to many of Wayland's athletic events. Undaunted by yells of "rah-Rah" or "Jock", this year both squads worked in promoting school spirit and trying to attract more fans to athletic events.

"The Wayland Redmen Began their climb toward excellence. This year the redmen won two games and lost six games. Out of the six games lost the players were in there fighting most of the way. This, in comparison to the last two seasons was a great improvement. The team, as the season progressed began to think victory even though they were usually outweighed by twenty to thirty pounds per man."

"We started out with good spirit this year and we did improve over last year even with complications such as the ref missing in most games. Defense was better this year with some of the top teams not beating us quite so bad. Next year only four men are returning to our squad, but with new corps coming in, we're looking toward a good season."

"Students were given credit in physical education for their participation in ballet this year. A record high of over thirty-five students and faculty took part. For many it was an introduction to a disciplined performing art. Others continued instruction begun years ago. Teacher Sandy Storm of the Wisconsin Ballet Company in Madison, choreographed and taught a simple dance to the second semester class. Somehow, it never seemed quite as easy as it looked."

Miss J. Schwarzmeier

Because of the vanity of the Wayland ballerinas, their bodies will go unrecorded in the annals of posterity.

The Students Prayer

Now I lay me down to study
I pray the Lord I wont go nuttie
If I fail to learn this junk
I pray the Lord I will not flunk
And if I fail don't pity me at all
Just lay my body in study hall
And pile my books upon my chest responsibility for sustained study, because the opportunity to focus upon one or two topics (projects) should provide the stimulus for the study in depth.

The independent study program provides an opportunity, especially for upper classmen to be involved in a project which could be related to a possible future career.

Students and teachers pool their efforts and ingenuity in a joint adventure into educational excitement and learning.

(D. Server)

You ain't heard nothin' yet folks.
(C. Shand)

I am only one, but still I am one; I cannot do everything, but still I can do something; and because I cannot do everything
I will not refuse to do the something that I can do.

(T. Szweda)

Just about the time you think you can make ends meet someone moves the ends.

(G. Smolka)

Theresa Maria Szweda

Diane Elizabeth Teichman

John Paul Shute

Denise Kaye Siegel

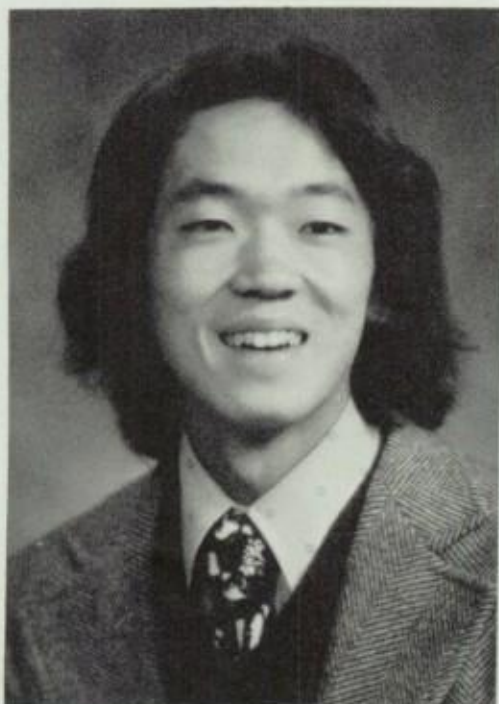

I am not a dumb blond.
(D. Siegel)

"Enjoy while you still can."
(P. Shute)

Under the chestnut tree,
I sold you and you sold me.
(T. Teshima)

The happiness of your life depends on the happiness in your thoughts, "Mon".
(D. Teichman)

Hold fast to dreams,
for if dreams die,
life is a broken
winged bird that cannot fly.
(J. Townsend)

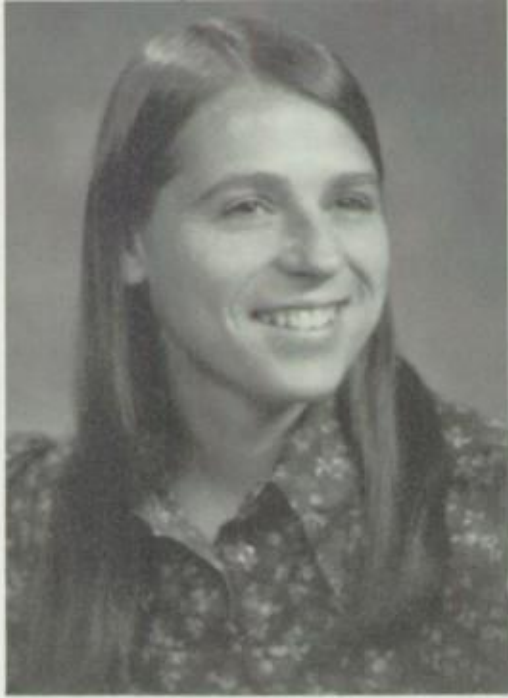

Theodor Toshiaki Teshima

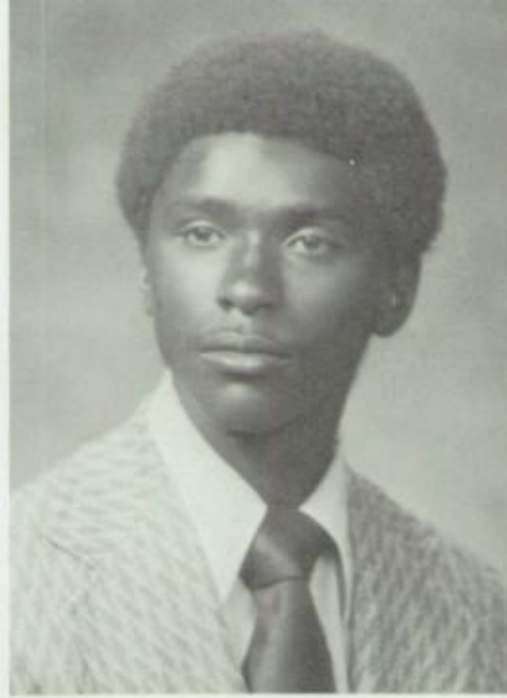

Jennifer Townsend

Gretchen F. Trumpf

Gregory Dion Walker

From one feisty extreme to another.
(G. Trumpf)

What should I do?
(G. Walker)

When in question look confused!
(J. Yanikowski)

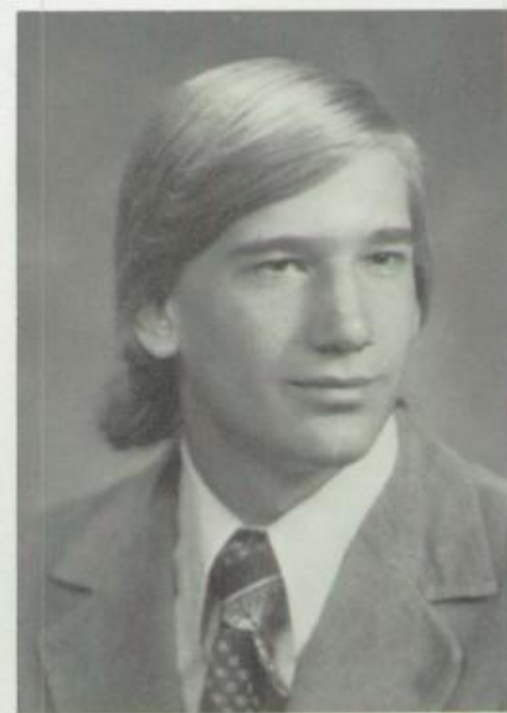

All opinions are worthless; including this one.
including this one.
(B. Wiedenhoeft)

Violence is the last resort
to a frustrated mind.
(J. Wiesman)

"Dart's
eat
AMX."
(D. Weglarz)

William Wiedenhoeft

Jimmy Scott Wiesman

Dennis Charles Weglarz

Jerome T. Weil III

Allons! with power, liberty, the earth, the elements,
Health, defiance, gaiety, self-esteem, curiosity;
Allons! from all formules!
From your formules, O bat-eyed and materialistic priests.
(J. Zabolio)

I found someone worth living for — Jesus.
(E. Whereatt)

But be ye deers of the word, and not hears only deceiving your own selves.
(J. Weil)

Catherine Ann Whereatt

James Lloyd Yanikowski

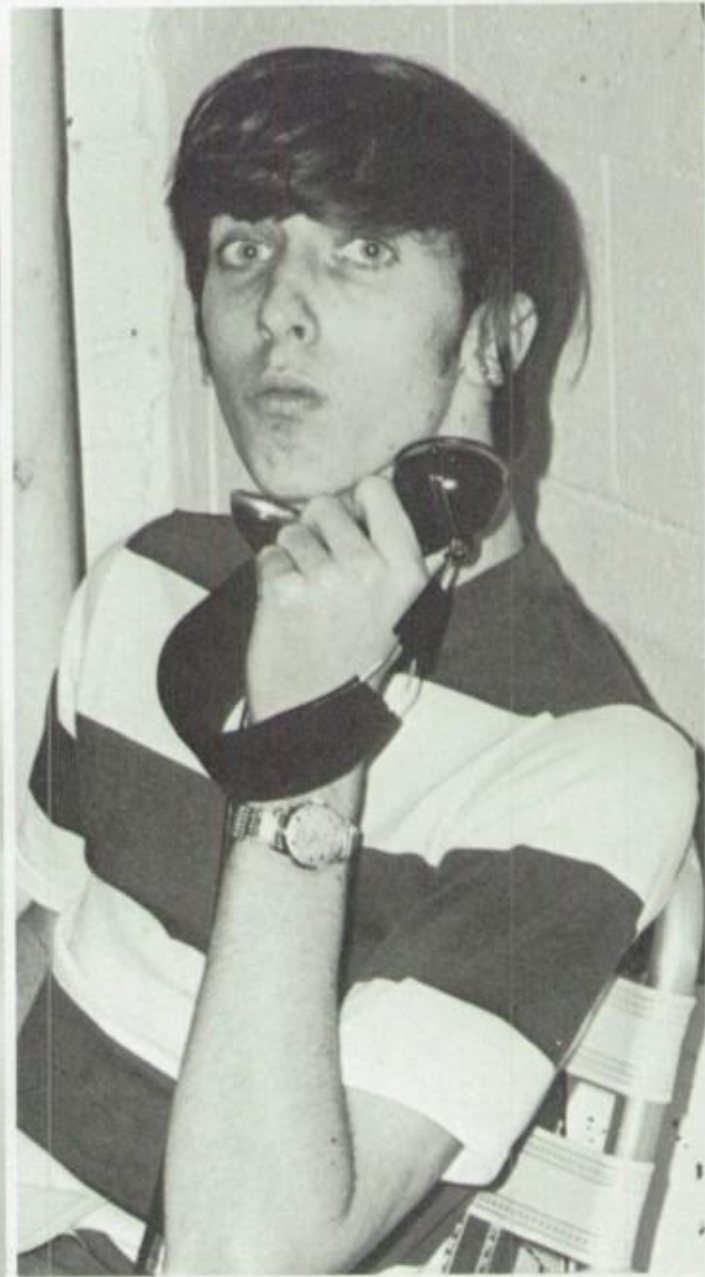

Julie Kane Zabolio

Hey, Terry

Bruce it's for you.

108 Now only if I could ride this thing.

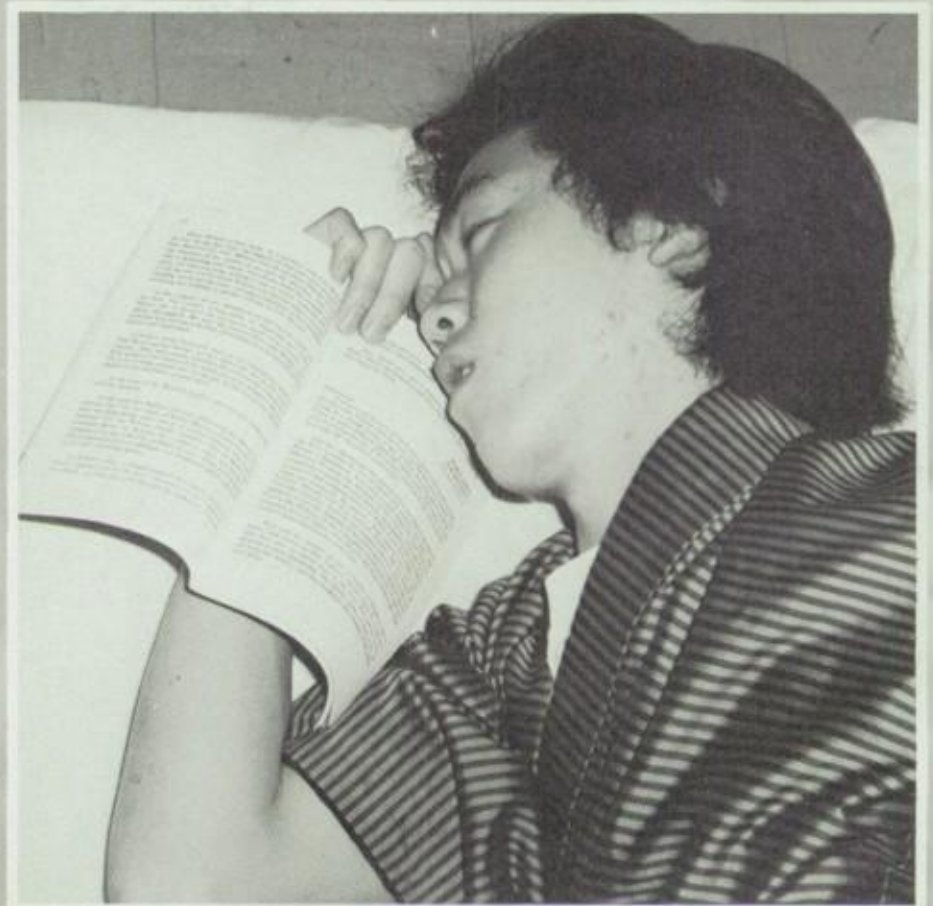

And now, Conrad Freeman will swallow a candle.

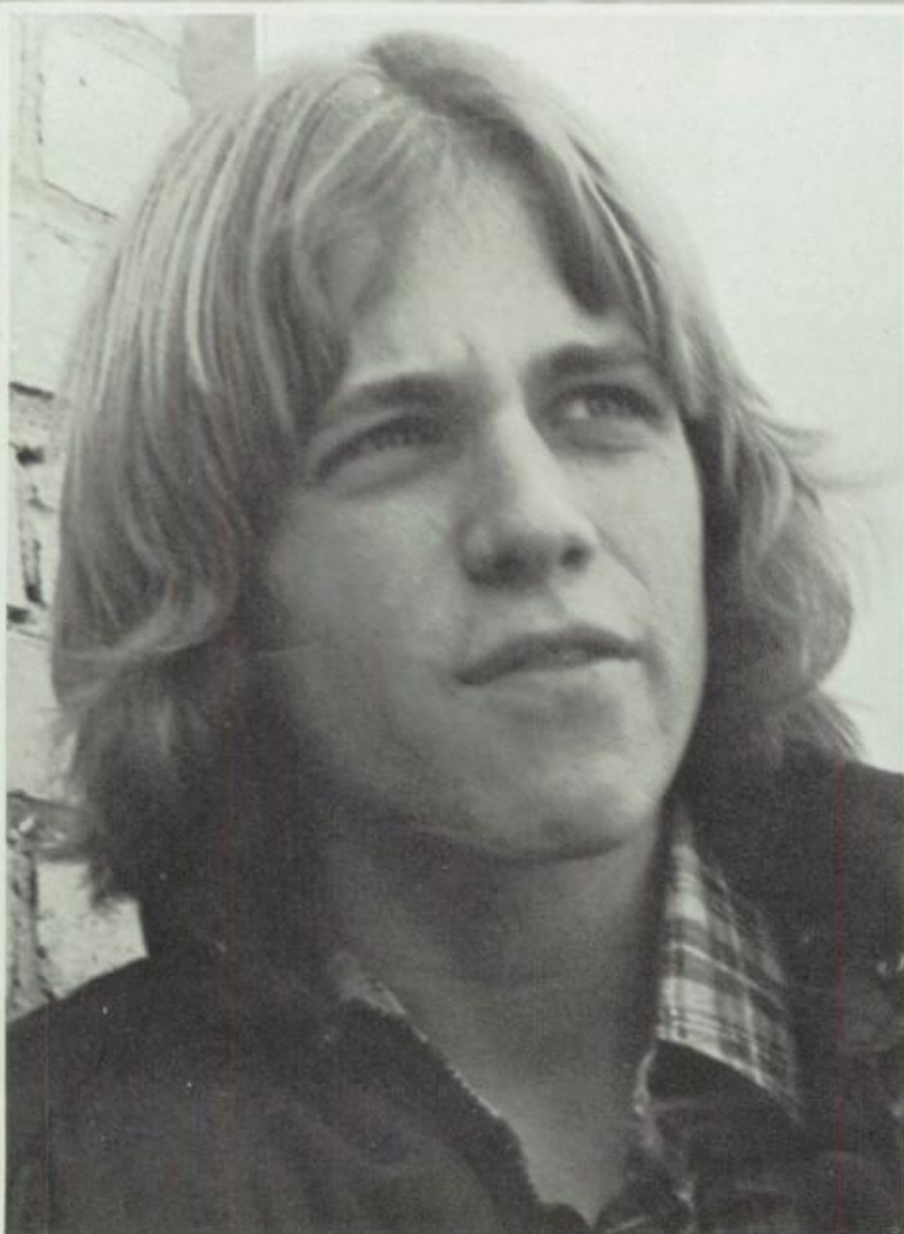

You're kidding!!!

Osmosis won't work with SONS AND LOVERS, Ted.

That's a No-No!

They all look the same to me.

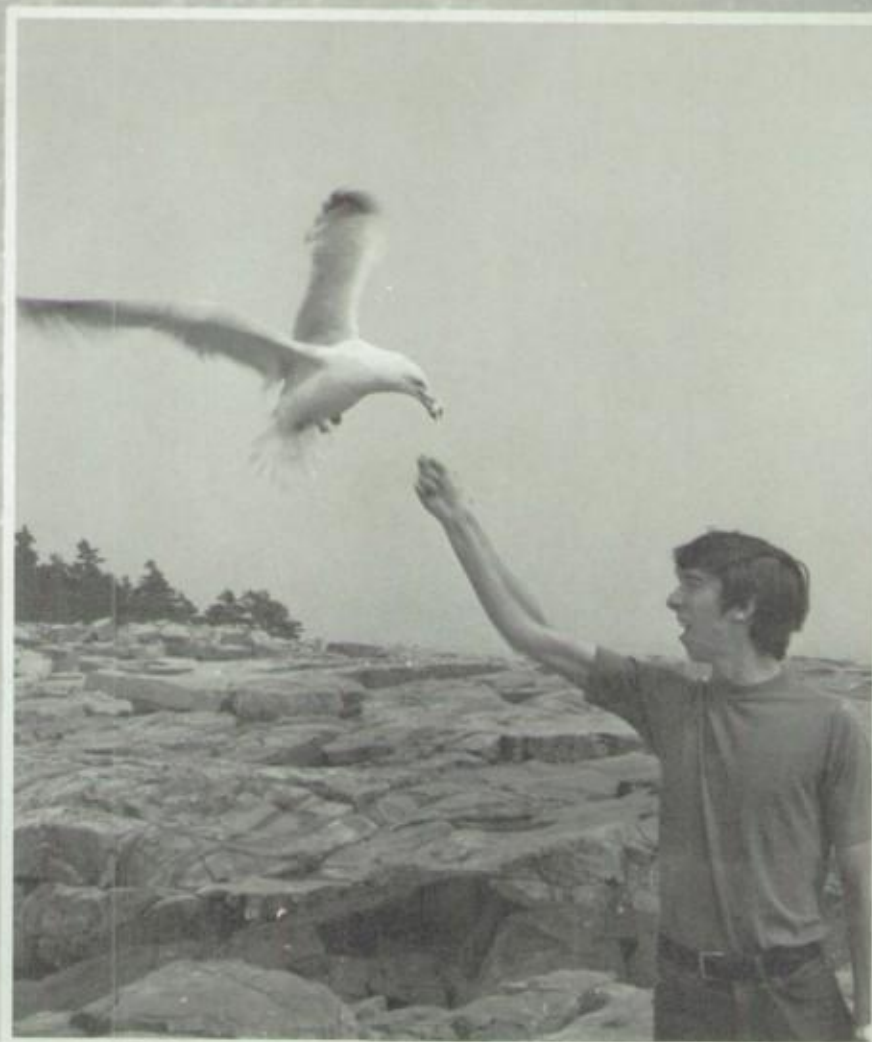

Mr. Burnett reverts to his childhood.

It's my cat!

Braces are fun.

Don't tease dumb animals with Saga food, "A."

What's wrong Kim won't it go over your hair?

OOF!

Here he comes again, Biss.

Whan that April.

Look like you ARE someone . . . and smile-look pleasant!

This is what really went on.

Give up, Diane, Doc's gonna give us the test any way.

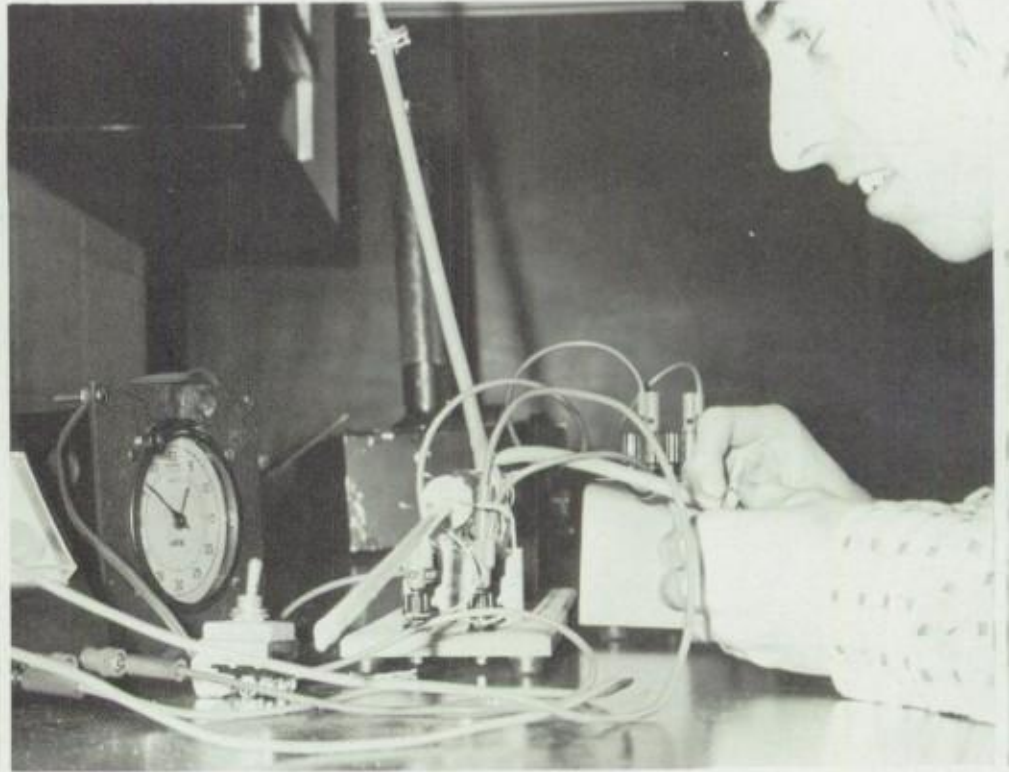

Snowflakes keep falling on my tongue.

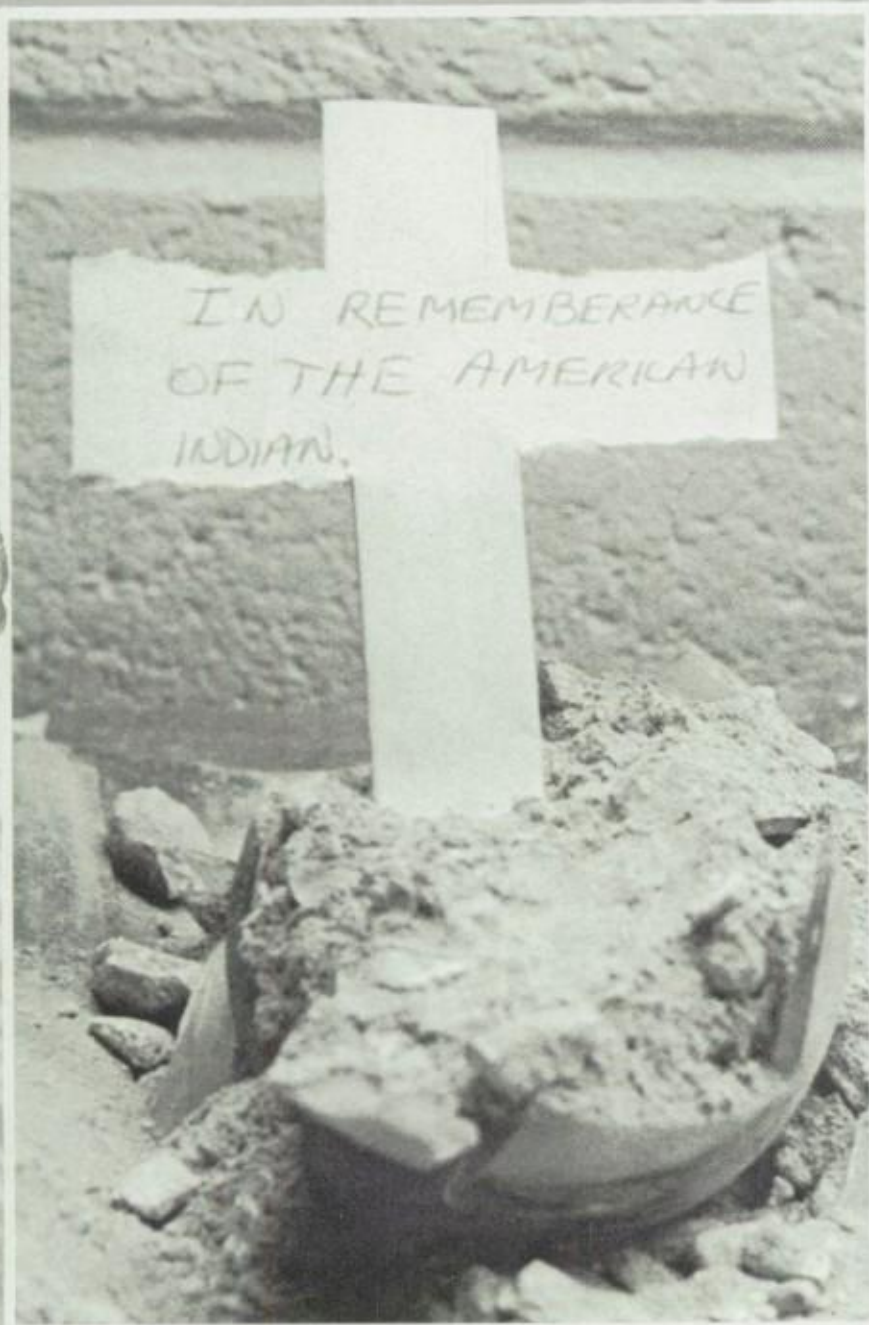

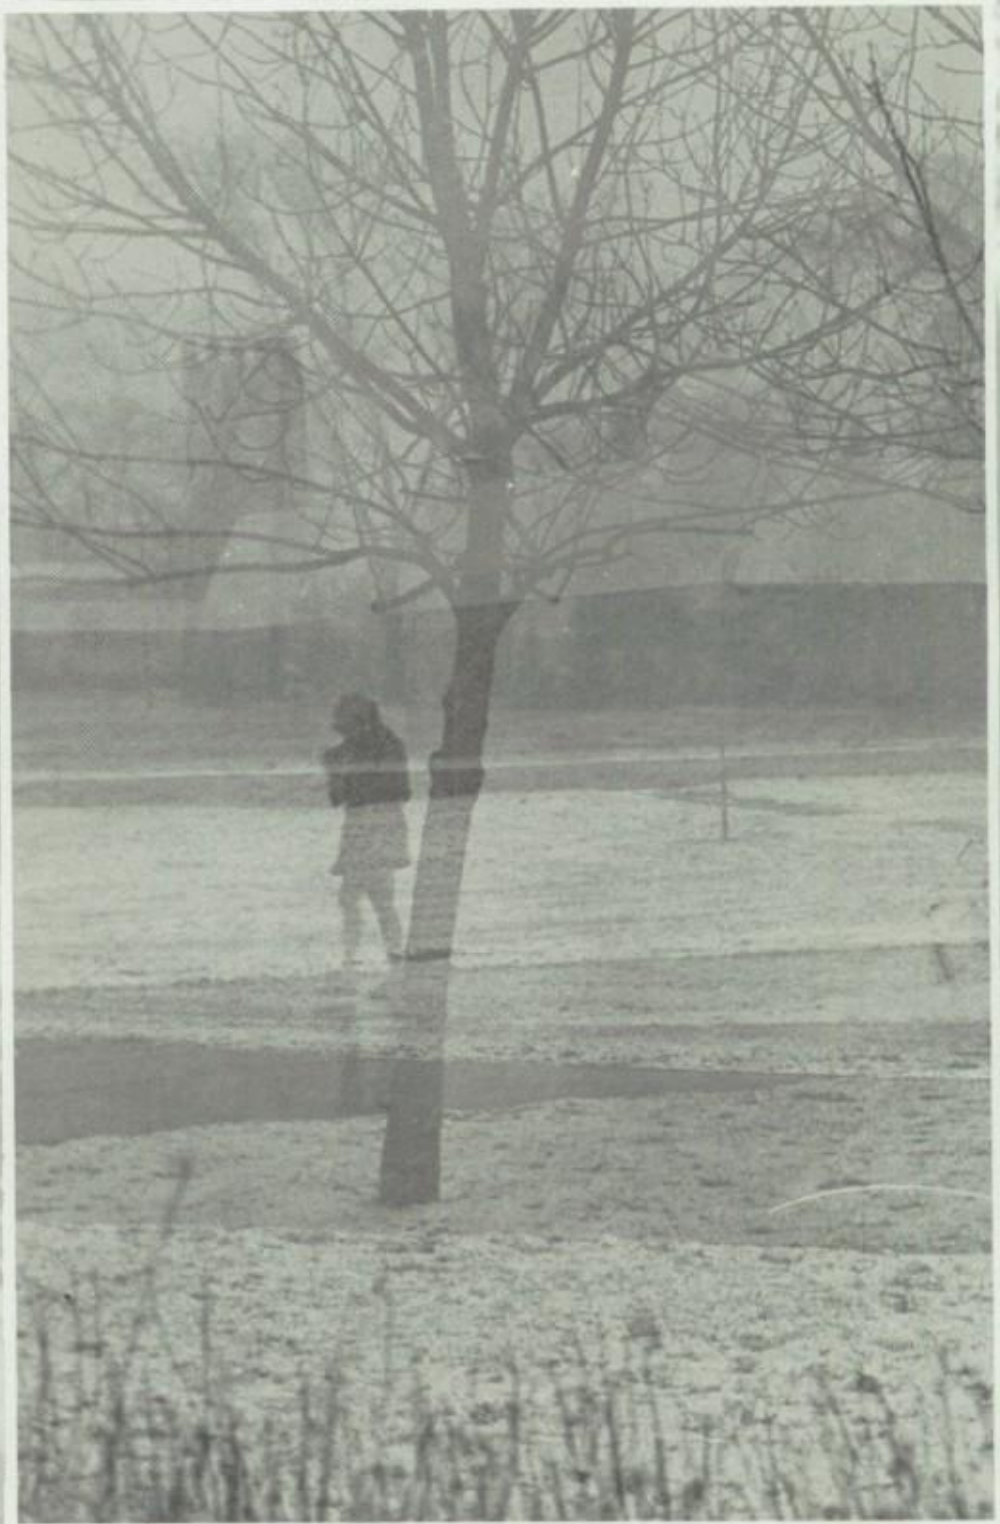

A little too much Christmas spirit, Martha?

Adrian's time bomb.

Eulogy

A fading Wayland image.

Well it is - lots to say in one little note. The beginning of "the year was super. Had those fun trips to Sweden. You were so fun to be with - you're a super great kid And the night
we had our parting of the ways killed me. But you're still the greatest! And just want you to know
I loved + Gina were tripping.
Newd know - olc. well wuff of the suits - the loads of fun this summer + I hope to see you a lot next year.
Bel yourself -
Viti

I was sort of an unknown being in your life but there's always next year if you come back.
 Hope you find all the peace happiness
 and have a nice summer.
